APPENDIX A: CODE OF CONDUCT	12
A1. PLAYER BEHAVIOUR GENERALLY	13

The eLigue1 Tour (the “Competition”) is a nonexclusive and non-transferable licensed event by Electronic Arts (“EA”), a company based at Place du Molard, 8, 1204 Geneva, Switzerland, and produced by Freaks 4U Gaming, a German corporation, located at An der Spreeschanze 10, 13599 Berlin, Germany and under the management of Ligue de Football Professionnel (“LFP”), a French association located 6 rue Léo Delibes, 75016 Paris, France, duly represented by Mr. Arnaud ROUGER, in his quality as Executive General Director and is governed by these eLigue1 Tour Official Rules (“Official Rules”).

The Competition is a video game competition conducted using EA SPORTS FIFA 21 (“Game”) on PlayStation 4 or PlayStation 5 (“Supported Platform”).

1. General structure of the Competition

The Competition is an amateur competition opened to residents (the “Players”) of one of the following six (6) countries: Morocco, Qatar, Brazil, United States, Ivory Coast and Japan (the “Eligible Countries”).

1.1 National qualifiers

Qualification stages (“Qualifiers”) will be held in each of these Eligible Countries. The tournaments of the Competition will be played through <https://www.toornament.com/fr/>, except for Japan where it will be played through <https://battlefy.com/>.

The winner of each national Qualifier will be qualified for the eLigue1 Tour Finals in France and will represent his country.

The number of qualification to the eLigue1 Tour Finals is:

- United States Qualifier: 1 player qualified from USA.
- Japan Qualifier: 1 player qualified from Japan.
- Brazil Qualifier: 1 player qualified from Brazil.
- Qatar Qualifier: 1 player qualified from Qatar.
- Morocco Qualifier: 1 player qualified from Morocco.
- Ivory Coast Qualifier: 1 player qualified from Ivory Coast.

1.2 Grand Final in France

The six (6) finalists (i.e. the winner of each national qualifier) will play a live final tournament in France on 8-9th May 2021 according to the provisions of Article 8.2.

2. Participation requirements

2.1. Player requirements

In order to participate in the eLigue1 Tour, the Players must register on (<http://eligue1tour.gg>) (the "Pre-Registration Site") and finalize the registration on Toornament (except for Japan: : <https://battlefy.com/>).

The Players may register as of 20 January 2021.

The Players (individually a "Player" or a "Competitor") shall comply with the following requirements:

- Having an EA SPORTS FIFA 21 game for PlayStation 4 or PlayStation 5 or an access to the game.
- Have a valid game account.
- Comply with age and residency requirements.

The Players must register with their valid EA Account and accept these Official Rules on the Registration Site to be eligible to participate to the Competition.

In addition, Players must choose a unique nickname by which they will be identified, this must be unique and may, but does not have to, be the same as their game account. This nickname may not contain any vulgarities or non-appropriate terms.

These Official Rules may be updated without notice as necessary during the Competition for the benefit of the Competition and include, but are not limited to: add further clarity, correcting mistakes, respecting changes in applicable law, or addressing issues that may arise after the first publication. The objective of the updates shall be to ensure that the eLigue1 Tour is played on a fair basis between all Competitors.

LFP reserves the right to cancel, suspend and/or modify the Competition or any part thereof, notably in case of fraud, technical failures or any other factor affects the integrity or proper functioning of the Competition, including the safety of Players or fairness of the Competition, as determined by LFP in its sole discretion. LFP reserves the right to disqualify any Competitor who manipulates the operation of the Competition or any live event or who acts in a manner that violates these Official Rules. Any attempt to deliberately undermine the legitimate operation of the Competition may be considered a violation of criminal or civil law and if such an attempt is made, LFP reserves the right to seek damages and other compensation (including legal representation expenses) from the person making such an attempt, to the fullest extent allowed by law.

By participating in the Competition, Competitors must agree to be bound by these Official Rules, as well as by the decisions of the Competition administrators and officials.

Concerning Competitors who are minors in their country of residence, the parent or legal guardian must review and accept the Official Rules on their behalf and travel with the minor to attend the live events.

The travel and accommodation costs of the participant and the obligatory accompanying person (only for minors) associated with participation in the live events will be borne by the tournament organizer according to the provisions of Article 8.2.

Employees of EA, LFP and their respective affiliates, subsidiaries, representatives, subcontractors, advertising and promotion agencies, FIFA and immediate family members or those living in the same household as such employees are not authorized to participate in the Competition.

2.2. Age requirements

In order to participate in the Competition, Competitors must be at least 16 years old at the time of registration and at least the minimum age required to have the right to participate to such tournament as well as a full EA Account (not underage) in their country of residence.

In the case of Competitors who are minors in their country of residence, the parent or legal guardian must review, accept, print and sign the official Rules on their behalf.

2.3. Residence Requirements

In order to compete in the eLigue1 Tour on a fair and equal basis, all Players must be resident of one of the Eligible Countries and play their respective matches from within the Eligible Country of the tournament in which they are registered. As the case may be, LFP can ask to the Players to provide a proof of residence in order to determine their eligibility to compete in the Competition. LFP, in its sole discretion, will determine the adequacy of such proof and/or documentation.

Throughout the competition, Competitors invited to participate in live events, as further defined under section 1, will be required to sign and return a Declaration of Suitability and to attest of their residence.

3. National Qualifiers Rules

3.1. Game mode

All matches must be played through the EA SPORTS FIFA 21 video game, on PlayStation4 or PlayStation 5, and with 90 rated "friendlies mode". Only teams from Ligue 1 Uber Eats must be used.

4. Official rules enforcement

Unless otherwise specified, the Code of Conduct detailed in Appendix A applies to all Competitors in the eLigue 1 Tour. Periodically, EA Accounts, rankings and game data are audited for cheating and malicious behaviour. Any Player may be immediately disqualified from competition and subsequent phases at the sole discretion of LFP or its designees for any reason, including, but not limited to, breach of the User Agreement, Privacy Policy and Cookie Policy, and the Code of Conduct.

Examples of prohibited behaviours as well as potential penalties are detailed in the Code of Conduct attached in Appendix A.

LFP, in its sole discretion, reserves the right to disqualify any Player at any time, for any reason, including but not limited to tampering with the entry process or the operation of the Competition, or acting in violation of these Official Rules or in an unsportsmanlike or disruptive manner and reserves the right to void all associated entries. LFP's failure to enforce any term of these Official Rules shall not constitute a waiver of that provision.

5. Referee

5.1. Referee's authority

The matches will be controlled by a referee, who will have full authority to enforce the rules of the game during the competition.

5.2. Decisions of the referee

The decisions will be made to the best of the referee's ability according to the rules of the game and these regulations and national qualifiers regulations. The rules of the competition and the spirit of the game shall be based on the opinion of the referee, who has the discretion to make appropriate decisions within the framework of the rules of the game.

The decisions of the referee on facts connected with the game, including the remake, the resumption or not of a game and the result of the match, are final and non-appealable.

5.3. Disciplinary measures

The referee shall take disciplinary action against Players who commit violations described in the Code of Conduct and/or are cautioned or sent off.

The referee shall have the authority to take disciplinary action from the time he begins a pre-match inspection until he leaves the field after the end of the match (which includes breaks and rests between games). If, prior to entering a game, a Player commits a sending-off offense, the referee has the authority to prevent the Player from participating in the match. The referee shall make a report of any misconduct.

6. General terms and disclaimer

By participating in this Competition, every Competitor agrees:

To the extent permitted by law, to assume all responsibility for any damages suffered by the Competitor, including personal injury and property damage, actually or allegedly caused by his/her participation in any phase of the Competition or by the acceptance, possession or use of any prize.

The Competition is governed by the laws of France and all claims must be settled in France.

6.1. Personal information

As data controller, the Organiser (LFP) processes personal information concerning the players (such as surname, first name, marital status, city of residence, email address - hereinafter the "Personal Data") in order to be able to organise, manage and monitor the Competition and the relationship with the players (including the follow-up of registrations, of participations, compliance with the rules, management of disputes, awarding prizes to the winners) as well as to be able to recontact the players and send them communications and offers from the Organiser concerning other competitions and more generally on the Organiser's activity and on Football. This processing is carried out respectively for the purposes of adherence to and execution of the rules of the game, in the legitimate interest of the Organiser to promote all similar activities and on the consent of the players for the sending of promotional communications relating to the other activities of the Organiser and for the transmission of Personal Data to the Organiser's partners for prospecting purposes. Players are informed that they may withdraw their consent to receive communications at any time by clicking on the unsubscribe link on such communications.

Some Personal Data has been and will be requested from you in order to meet contractual needs related to the execution of the game rules. These Personal Data will be identified on the forms (NB: example asterisk or in bold). In addition, some data will be collected to enable us to check players' compliance with the game rules, in particular players' conversations in the context of the game, which will be used in the event of players' disputes for evidentiary purposes. If a player does not provide us with these Personal Data or if he/she objects to the processing of these Personal Data, we will not be able to execute the game rules. In this respect, the players undertake to provide the Organiser with accurate and up-to-date Personal Data.

Players' Personal Data may be transmitted to the Organiser's technical providers for purposes of service provision.

In addition, and subject to the players' consent, the Personal Data may be:

- used by the LFP to promote its activities other than those related to the competitions; and
- transmitted to LFP's Partners for promotional purposes;

In addition, the players are informed that within the framework of the Competition the Data: surname, first name, city of residence will be published on the Competition website.

Personal Data are kept for the following periods:

- for the management and monitoring of the Competition and the relationship with the players: for the duration of the contractual relationship resulting from the execution of the Game Rules, then the Personal Data will be archived for evidentiary purposes for the duration of the applicable legal limitation period;
- for the sending of promotional content by the LFP: for 3 years from the last contact with the player, unless the players withdraw their consent.

In accordance with Regulation 2016/679/EU and the applicable laws, players have rights with regard to the data concerning them (right of access, rectification, deletion, opposition, portability, the right to withdraw any consent given, to limit and define the directives on the fate of their data after their death) that they may exercise under the conditions defined by the aforementioned regulations directly with the Organiser at the following address: cil-lfp@lfp.fr.

Players can also appeal to the Commission Nationale de l'Informatique et des Libertés (CNIL) directly on its website: cnil.fr.

The Organiser has appointed a DPO (Data Protection Officer) whom the players can contact via the following email address: cil-lfp@lfp.fr.

The Organiser informs the players that any opposition to the processing of their Personal Data during the Competition will result in the cancellation of their participation in the Competition.

All this personal information is provided: (i) subject to the rights and obligations under applicable data protection legislation, including the requirements of the GDPR. This could include the signing of a data protection agreement between the parties, if requested by the League to EA; and (ii) only for EA's own use in order to allow the use of the FIFA Friendly Competition Mode to individual players. Except as permitted above, EA is not granted any rights under this agreement to pass on such data to any third party and EA shall not pass on such data to any third party.

6.2. Publication of the winner's information

LFP will post the names of confirmed winners online after each national qualifier on <http://eligue1tour.gg> and each country national hub.

The Competitor grants LFP the right to use their personal information and other data provided by the Competitor without receiving consent or offering compensation to the Competitor for marketing and promotional purposes.

By accepting a prize, Player grants LFP the right to use their personal information, and any other information provided by Player, without further consent or compensation to Player, for the administration, marketing, and promotion of the Competition, Ligue 1 Uber Eats, and/or the Game, unless otherwise noted below:

- Background info: Full name, country of residency, age, Supported Platform Username (PSN ID), position on monthly leaderboard in the month of qualification.
- Football fandom info: Favorite professional football club, favorite professional football player, favorite FUT player item.
- Social Media info: Twitter handle, YouTube channel, Twitch account, Instagram username (if applicable).
- Photos: Any photos provided by Player to LFP or photos of Player taken onsite at a Live Event.
- Other Information for tournament administration only: Shirt size, dietary restrictions, mobile phone number.

LFP may use the account information of the Player for the purposes of administering the Competition, including without limitation that LFP may contact Player by email and/or other means.

6.3. Commercial Rights

- All commercial rights (including, but not limited to, marketing and media rights) related to the Competition belong to LFP.
- Competitors may not associate with the Competition or LFP in a commercial manner, use LFP intellectual property rights, or allow others to do so without LFP's prior written consent, which LFP may grant or deny in its sole discretion.
- Any Competitor or Competitor's sponsor who wishes to participate in promotional or marketing activities related to the Competition, including in any venue, requires LFP's prior written consent, which the company may grant or deny in its sole discretion.
- Registration and disclosure of images or footage of the Competition for commercial purposes by or on behalf of the Competitor is strictly prohibited, except as expressly authorized by LFP.

7. Awards

In the national qualifier there will be no monetary prizes beyond access to the next phase of the competition except for Morocco (3300 DHS). In the eLigue 1 Tour Finals the total prize money will be 5,200 Euros.

Players will receive a prize payment form if eligible for prizing. Players must complete this form within 90 days or prize money may be forfeit and donated to a charity on the Player's behalf.

Prizes are not transferable. No substitution of prizes for other goods and services is permitted, except that LFP reserves the right to provide a substitute prize of approximately equal or greater value if the advertised prize is unavailable or not allowed by local law. All federal, state, provincial and local taxes, and international tariffs, are the sole responsibility of the individual winner.

Potential winners will be required to complete and sign a Prize Winner Declaration and Release within 90 days of completion of the Live Event in order to claim the prize. If a potential winner fails to sign and/or return the Declaration and Release, refuses the prize, is ineligible to accept the prize, or the prize is returned as undeliverable, the potential winner forfeits the prize.

Failure to communicate banking information or delivery method to prize distribution vendor in a timely manner may result in forfeiture of the prize. If a winner is considered a minor in his or her territory of residence, winner's parent or legal guardian (as required by law) will be required to sign all necessary documents upon verification of identification. Receiving a prize is contingent upon compliance with these Official Rules. In the event a potential winner is disqualified, or the prize is forfeited for any reason, LFP retains the discretion to donate the applicable prize to a charity of LFP's choosing. Potential winners may be required to provide a valid shipping address to claim prize. Allow up to three (3) months for delivery of prizes.

In the event LFP cancels or suspends the Competition pursuant to Section 2.1 above, prizes will not be awarded for the remaining events of the Competition not played.

8. Participating in Live Events

During the Competition, eligible Players who qualify and/or are invited to compete in the Competition will engage in gameplay that may be broadcasted over the internet or other media, as well as involve competition at live venues ("Live Events").

8.1. Participating in Remote Broadcast Events

For Remote Broadcast Competition organized online, qualified and invited Players will be requested to stream live video footage of Player and gameplay footage to a designated location.

To be eligible to participate in such Remote Broadcast competition, qualified and invited Players will have to sign and return a Declaration of Eligibility to Participate, according to the terms of section 8.3 below.

8.2 Travel for Competing in In-Person Live Events

LFP may provide travel accommodations for qualified and invited Players to the Live Events at LFP's expense. For Players with travel expenses paid by LFP, the selection of transportation carriers, hotels, and/or related transfers will be in LFP sole discretion. LFP reserves the right to provide ground transportation instead of airfare based on a Player's travel distance from a Live Event. If a Player requests special travel or accommodation plans, such as different travel dates, different carriers, or departure/arrival cities other than the designated city for the tournament, and if the cost of the special travel request exceeds that of the standard tournament travel plans, LFP may require the Player to cover the difference in cost.

Receiving travel accommodations is contingent upon compliance with these Official Rules. If a Player is disqualified or travel is forfeited for any reason, LFP may award that Player's travel and accommodations to an alternate Player, who may assume that Player's place in the Competition.

Incidentals for travel, including, without limitation: telephone calls, facsimile charges, Internet charges, spa/beauty salon services, laundry, tours/excursions, gift shop purchases, hotel processing fees, airline service charges and any other expenses not mentioned in these Official Rules are the sole responsibility of the Player or parent/guardian, and the Player may be asked to account for any such incidental charges by providing the applicable hotel with a credit card. Hotel and airfare cannot be used separately. Travel and accommodations are subject to availability and certain restrictions. Any extra nights' stay, and any additional costs associated with an extended stay are the sole responsibility of the Player or parent/guardian. Valid passports and/or other travel documentation may be required, which is the responsibility of each Player. Additional restrictions may apply.

8.3 Declaration of Eligibility

Players must sign:

- A Declaration of Eligibility to Participate for online Live Events, or

- A Declaration of Eligibility to Travel for In-person Live Events prior to accepting travel accommodations to Live Events.

Together the “Declaration of Eligibility”.

The Declaration of Eligibility will be provided to Players via email to the email address associated with Player’s EA Account or the one registered during the registration on the website or tournament platform. If a Player does not complete the Declaration of Eligibility within seven (7) calendar days of attempted notification, fails to sign and/or return the Declaration of Eligibility within the required time period, refuses travel or participation, is ineligible to accept travel or to participate, or is unavailable to travel or participate on dates appropriate to the Live Events, the Player forfeits travel accommodations or its participation, as well as their place in the Competition.

If a Player is a minor in his or her territory of residence, the Player’s parent or legal guardian will be required to sign all necessary documents to accept travel or participation.

9. Force majeure

LFP shall not be held liable for any breach of any of its obligations under the Official Rules resulting from a force majeure event as defined by Article 1218 of the French Civil Code.

LFP shall endeavour in good faith to take all reasonable measures to limit the effects of such event and shall pursue the performance of the Official rules under the best possible conditions.

10. Sanitary restrictions

LFP shall not be held liable for any breach of any of its obligations under the Official Rules resulting from a sanitary restriction took by any national or local entity including LFP itself.

LFP shall endeavour in good faith to take all reasonable measures to limit the effects of such event and shall pursue the performance of the Official rules under the best possible conditions.

APPENDIX A: CODE OF CONDUCT

The below Code of Conduct applies to all Players in the Competition at all levels of the Competition, unless otherwise specified. LFP reserves the right to levy penalties, sanction, or disqualify any Player in violation of this Code of Conduct in its sole discretion.

A1. PLAYER BEHAVIOUR GENERALLY

Players must conduct themselves in a reasonable manner, maintaining an appropriate and respectful demeanour to spectators, members of the press, tournament administrators, and to other Players. Players are required to conduct themselves in accordance with commonly accepted standards of decency, social conventions, and morals, and not to commit any act or become involved in any situation or make any statement which brings disrepute, contempt, scandal, ridicule, or distain to the Player, EA, LFP, the Competition, or to its Players and sponsors. These requirements apply to live, offline, and online interactions, in and out of the Competition, including with respect to social media conduct and activity on live streams, past conduct and during Events. All Players are expected to adhere to these standards of sportsmanship and the EA Rules of Conduct, available at <https://terms.ea.com>, at all times, including when not participating in EA sanctioned events. EA Accounts, the leaderboard and match data may be audited, including for malicious behaviour and cheating. Any Competitor may be disqualified immediately from the Competition and related competitions, at the discretion of LFP or its designees, for any reason, including for any failure to comply with the the eLigue 1 Tour Official Regulations and Code of Conduct, which may include but are not limited to:
